Congresswoman,

Here is the statement by the President. Note, we are using this in a VERY targeted way.

We are not doing a press conference or release - so as not to get more Republicans energized to come out.

We are walking flyers and we will do a robo call late Friday and another on Saturday morning if we don't get the President's recording.

President Obama:

"I am proud to endorse Sylvester Turner in his bid to become Houston's next mayor. Sylvester rose from humble beginnings to become a champion in the Texas legislature for quality education, universal access to health care and affordable electricity rates for seniors. His story is the American story, and he's determined to keep the promise of his city and country alive for the next generation.

Sylvester believes that every Houstonian deserves safer neighborhoods, stronger schools and better infrastructure, no matter what you look like or what part of town you live in. I agree. That's why I am asking you to vote for Sylvester Turner for Mayor in the runoff election on December 12."
